Division Rules:

All entries are subject to the General Rules and these additional rules.

OWNERSHIP: 4-H, FFA or FCCLA youth must order the birds through the County Extension AgriLife Office working on behalf of the Texoma Exposition and Livestock Show. Contact Joyce White at 903-813-4203 or your AG teacher/FFA supervisor to order. Birds are ordered in lots of 25 birds. Cost is $43.50 per lot of 25 wing banded birds. Order deadline is December 7, 2018.

An exhibitor may enter more than one pen of three, however, only one pen will be allowed to participate in the premium auction.

Only healthy birds will be allowed in the show area and will be at the Superintendent and Director's discretion.

Upon check-in, wing band numbers will be verified and pens set. Wing band numbers must be validated in the exhibitor's name.

Each exhibitor and no more than two handlers must be present at judging to present and hold broilers during judging.

Feed, water and litter will be furnished. Each exhibitor is responsible for the care of their own birds.

All decisions of the judge, Superintendent and Director are final. Interfering or attempts to influence the Judge will result in disqualification and forfeiture of awards.

All Poultry must be placed into pens provided by Texoma Livestock and Exposition before show time. No poultry may be shown from boxes or cages other than the ones provided unless directed by show superintendent.

Top 5 pens of broilers are eligible for the sale. Wing bands of birds that make the sale will be checked at the end of the show.
