Division Rules: All entries are subject to the General Rules and these additional rules

The dairy goat show will be a trailer show only, pending the availability of pens in the goat and lamb barn. No use of pinch collars. Show chains or nylon collars only, no halters.

OWNERSHIP: Registered dairy goats must have ownership in the name of the exhibitor. Commercial does (non-registered) must present POS (point of sale) slip which includes date purchased, age of doe, and breed of parents. Does must have been continuously cared for and fed personally by exhibitor since the date of purchase.

Does in milk should not have over extended udders; it is the responsibility of the exhibitor to ensure does are shown with the appropriate amount of milk in their udders.

The following recognized dairy breeds or crossbreeds are eligible to show: Alpine, LaMancha, Nigerian Dwarfs, Nubian, AOP, and Recorded Grade. Commercial does (non-registered) will be shown in the Recorded classes. A minimum of three dairy goats of a breed must be entered from two or more exhibitors to justify a breed show, otherwise they will move to AOP.

Standard health papers not required, but common sense prevail. Sick or injured goats will be asked to leave the barn and any entry fee forfeited. For those of you crossing state lines be sure to satisfy any special requirements that might arise. Check with your vet. PLEASE NOTE: Any animals with lumps or abscesses or otherwise ill in the opinion of the show committee, will be quarantined and not allowed to show with all fees being forfeited.

Dairy Does must be winter clipped prior to arrival at the show. Please refrain from full body clipping.

Exhibitors Attire: White shirt with a collar (long or short sleeves) and white or black pants. No midriff-showing, no low-cut blouses, no see-through blouses will be allowed.

Division classes based on the age of the doe as listed on their registration papers and teeth/ point of sale slips for commercial does. Grand Champion & Reserve Grand Champion winners based on ear tattoos, chips, or tag numbers.
